The rules for the same are mentioned as under:

For such students who will become regular in Sem V in the academic year 2015-16, backlog for Design Engineering I A and I B will not be considered for the detention (for two attempts: regular and 1st remedial). They have to clear the backlog of Design Engineering 1A and 1B by odd semester of the academic year 2015-16. (i.e. backlog will be considered for the detention from Summer 2016 examination).
