

GOVERNMENT POLYTECHNIC

RAJKOT

FDP REPORT

Electrical Engineering Department, Government Polytechnic-Rajkot in association with AICTE and GTU organized five days Faculty Development Program under title of “E-Waste : The Environmental Problem”. This program succeeded draw attention from faculty members of various disciplines. The details of schedule and topics covered in training are as Time Table.

Duration : 25.03.2019 to 29.03.2019

All of above sessions were followed by practices session for hands on experience. At the end of each day trainees were required to write an assessment test to identify their level of learning. Periodic review of assignments helped the trainees to expedite the learning process. Total 40 Participants attended the said Faculty development Program. Various experts from Different institute, have delivered their expert sessions in these five days. On last session of each day of FDP a test was conducted for all the participants to qualify for the certificate.

For details Selected photograph are attached herewith.

