Nomination of Faculties as Course Coordinator/ Course Mentor for Open Elective on Semiconductor Package Manufacturing & Test – for the B.E.
Semester 6th Students offered by Micron Technology
(Academic Year 2025-26) (Subject Code: 3160004)

To

All Principals,

Bachelor of Engineering Colleges affiliated to GTU.

Gujarat Technological University (GTU), in continuation of its industry-integrated academic initiatives and aligned with the national objective of developing India as a global semiconductor hub, hereby announces the offering of the Open Elective on “Fundamentals of Semiconductor Package Manufacturing & Test” for B.E. Semester VI students during Academic Year 2025–26, in collaboration with Micron Technology.

This Open Elective was successfully implemented during AY 2024–25, wherein 125 faculty members from 32 GTU-affiliated institutes were trained through a Faculty Development Program (FDP) jointly organized by GTU and Micron Technology and subsequently facilitated effective course delivery at the institute level.

To ensure academic continuity, quality delivery, and smooth coordination for AY 2025–26, institutes intending to offer this Open Elective must have an active Course Coordinator and/or Course Mentor, as per the eligibility and instructions detailed below.

1. Eligibility of Institutes for AY 2025–26 for offering open elective by Micron Technology

Institutes shall be eligible to offer the Micron Technology Open Elective by fulfilling any one of the following criteria:

1.1 Institutes with FDP-Trained Faculty

Institutes having at least one faculty member from any branch who has successfully completed the GTU–Micron FDP during AY 2024–25 and is currently serving at the institute shall be eligible.

Important Notes for Consideration:

- If the earlier nominated Course Coordinator / SPOC is no longer available due to transfer or administrative reasons, the institute must freshly nominate another FDP-trained faculty member.
- The newly nominated faculty must have completed the FDP during AY 2024–25.
- Institutes with an active and available FDP-trained Course Coordinator/Mentor for AY 2025–26 need not submit fresh nominations.
