Marks: 20Case 1:

Dr. Anant Pandhare and 10 other dedicated doctors decided to work not just for their livelihood but to give something back to the society. They started with a small ten-bed hospital in Aurangabad district of Maharashtra. The doctors borrowed money from their families, and they decided to manage their life on minimum income, which set an example for other doctors. This further strengthened Dr. Pandhare and his team's vision to provide excellent medical services at affordable costs to the common man.

After nearly 22 years, they now serve more than 25 lakh poor patients. Today, they have taken up several initiatives that aim at looking after the overall healthcare, providing education and empowering people in rural villages of Maharashtra.
